

Argonaut Rowing Club 2022 Camp Argo Head Counsellor

Background

Founded in 1872, the Argonaut Rowing Club is one of Canada's oldest and largest rowing clubs.

Camp Argo is designed to introduce youth to rowing at an early age and teach them the fundamental skills of rowing, consistent with RCA's Athlete Pathway. Through the weeklong camp, youth will be exposed to a variety of boating types and are encouraged to work together with others in a "crew" environment.

We are planning to operate the camp without following COVID-19 rules and protocols provided that the Club is allowed to do so by Public Health.

An After-Care program will be operated from 3:00 - 5:30 PM for some campers, with a program of fun and safe activities.

Overview of position

Reporting to the ARC Head Junior Coach, the Camp Argo Head Counsellor is responsible for overseeing day to day management of the camp and will lead all on land and on water instruction with a focus towards individual skill development consistent with the Athlete Pathway within a fun and safe environment. The Head Counsellor will provide weekly updates and recommendations to the Head Junior Coach and daily updates where necessary. S/he will also provide updates to the Board Director responsible for Camp Argo as requested and as needed.

This position requires a high level of rowing knowledge, enthusiasm, initiative, passion, and people management skills. The Head Counsellor position provides a fantastic opportunity to enhance teaching, people, administrative and rowing abilities!

Specific responsibilities include:

- Supervise up to five Junior Counsellors and supervise the instruction up to 24 youth during each one week session in both crew and sculling boats including oar boards
- Instruct during weekdays 8:30 - 3:30 Monday - Friday, excluding holidays and Henley Week
- Develop cross-training activities which complement rowing fundamentals
- Train campers in specified rowing skills and test for skills development on the last day of camp through a mini skills regatta, based on the Athlete Pathway
- Prepare space and materials and tidy activity space.
- Ensure all administrative requirements are met for each camper including registration in RCA, and if necessary, parental sign-off through Hello Sign.
- Complete a written report within two weeks of the end of camp at the end of the summer
- Monitor rowing and safety equipment, ensuring in advance equipment is ready for each session, arranging for repairs where necessary
- Day to day planning of camp activities and rowing focuses with support from camp counsellors
- Provide parents with a plan for the week's activities; and communicate with them about their children's activities

- Promote the transition from Camp Argo into the Argonaut RC Junior Novice or Development program if appropriate
- Supervise the After-Care program to be operated 3:00 - 5:30 PM, providing appropriate activities to engage the Campers in a fun, safe environment
- Refer any problems to the Director for the Camp Argo program.

Qualifications Required

- Knowledge and understanding of RCA's Athlete Development Pathway especially as it relates to skills development and skills regattas
- Successful completion of the RCA/ROWONTARIO LTR Instructor course (check and sign-up <http://www.rowontario.ca/events/>).
- Satisfaction of RCA's Every Coach Certified requirements
- Two (2) coach-boat driver licenses: Toronto Port Authority Operators License and Pleasure Craft Operating Card are required for this position
- Mandatory Standard First Aid and CPR or willing to certify before the beginning of camp
- Comprehensive knowledge of rowing within a skills development environment
- Experience instructing / coaching
- Effective customer service experience
- Strong communication, administrative and organizational skills
- Flexibility and ability to work on several tasks at once
- Willingness to get directly involved in ARC activities and programs
- Self-motivated / willing to take initiative / problem-solver
- Ability to work independently, with a minimum of supervision
- Previous experience working within a camp environment is an asset
- In possession of and willing to use own computer to send and respond to emails

Hours of work

The Camp Argo Head Counsellor will work the following hours/schedule instructing the LTR program:

- June 27 - July 1, 2022 inclusive for set up
- July 4 - August 26, 2022 inclusive for camp
- 8:00 AM - 4:00 PM; 4:00 - 5:30 PM - hours paid separately
- There are no classes scheduled on holidays
- Program administration is flexible and can be done as required, from home or Club office

Compensation

- The Camp Argo Head Counsellor will be paid $18.00 per hour for a 44-hour work week (hours vary depending on class schedule) for 8 weeks, plus $16.00 an hour for an additional 7.5 hours per week for After-Care ($112.50) per week. Additional 4 hours per week is for administrative work.

Application Deadline:

January 21, 2022

Please forward a cover letter saying why you are the right person for this job and your resume to learntorow@argonautrowingclub.com please note in the Subject Line: "Camp Argo Counsellor"

Please note: we thank all applicants in advance, however, only those selected for an interview will be contacted. All qualified candidates will be considered but priority may be given to applicants with disabilities, Aboriginal applicants, visible minority applicants, LGBTQ2 applicants, or those who have not previously been employed and for whom this would be their first job experience.